From the Potentate's Desk

by 2019 Potentate I.S. Todd Weedman

A few months back I talked about “Vivid Visions” and “Audacious Goals,” the spirit of which are not new ideas for Al Kader. This has been evident this summer by some exceptional achievements by our Clubs, Units, and Nobles. For example, the recent East-West Football game is composed of many smaller tasks that require dozens of Nobles and their Ladies to labor hundreds of hours to make that event the grand success it is. Consider this for a moment, the small but mighty Tillamook Shrine Club sold $10,800 in ads for the E/W game program, 66 of those ads were a mere $35 each – That is a lot of hustle from the Nobles in God's Country!

Furthermore, the Food Caravan's growth has been sensational and is on track to break through the one million dollar mark this year. In Nashville, I had a chance to enlighten some Imperial officers about this – you should have seen their eyes! It apparently held their attention, because when speaking with our Imperial Potentate at summer PNSA he indicated it is on his calendar to attend and give acknowledgment of such an accomplishment, placing the Food Caravan on the International Shrine map. This wouldn't be the case without the hard work of so many Shrine Clubs thought out the state.

One of many other successful efforts is the Shrine Run for a Child in Bend. Born from a casual conversation, it has raised in excess of $130,000 over the previous 6 years and we forecast a bright future given its initial trajectory.

Each of these is fueled by the energy of many nobles who are driven and inspired. But in addition, those men have shared their enthusiasm in such a manner as to gain the support of their communities and thereby taking their efforts to a higher level.

Whether it was recent or 65 years ago, we can see success is a product of vision, inspiration through action, and achievement by means of refinement. We are fortunate to have many Nobles who have the knowledge to make these events so successful. Consider them a resource to vet your own ideas, be what they may. Let this be the year your Club or Unit takes the first step to breathe life into the next “Big Thing!”

On another note, I want to thank everyone who attended the East-West game in Baker City. All the activities were a pleasure to attend because you were there with us. Having the Concert and Oriental bands play during the Saturday luncheon brought back many fond memories of years past – music, laughter, visiting and sharing tall tales with our brethren is the cement that strengthens our bonds. Where would the hospital be without Al Kader Shriners – and us without each other?

Chaplain's Report by Noble Kenton Wolfe

Relationships. Humans are social and need relationships. What are relationships? They might be connections, associations or involvement. We all have relationships such as spouses, ladies, partners, family, and friends. We might think of relations as romantic. However, there are other types – and a need for these relationships as well.

Many people might have a need for a fraternal relationship. Shrine/Masons experience relationships that they might not experience elsewhere. They can find a need to be part of something bigger and greater than the individual. They can help be part of making and experiencing good men becoming better men. They might experience good men becoming great leaders. They might experience many activities they enjoy.

I have observed good men become better men through Lodge and Shrine activities. They can experience leadership opportunities. They can work with others of like minds toward a common goal.

I have seen men who had difficulty standing before a group unable to introduce themselves become good public speakers through Lodge and Shrine activities.

What can be more noble than participating in the greatest fraternity supporting the world's greatest philanthropy? The Shriners medical system has treated over 1 ½ million children and improved their lives. What a legacy! What a relationship!

As I attend and participate in Lodge and Shrine activities I observe many great relationships not seen elsewhere. There is something about participating in Lodge degree work, participating in parades with a Shrine Unit, and working at Lodge and Shrine activities that can form quite a bond of something greater than friendships.

Attend your Lodge and Al Kader Shrine activities, bring someone with you and see what relationships you develop that can enrich your life and that of others.

I also need to mention that it also can be fun as well!

by Noble Herb Richardson

It is hard to believe that it is September already and the summer time fun, parades, picnics, and time at the beach are memories for many. Nevertheless it is time to put away the toys of summer and get back to business. Oh, and let us not forget to mind those school speed zones once more.

Thanks to all who came out to our annual picnic in August. President Bill and his staff put together some fine picnic offerings and I don't think anyone left hungry. Many thanks also to the Al Kader Oriental Band for joining in the fun and providing the entertainment. Not to be forgotten are many thanks to the ladies for bringing those cookies and desserts.

I really don't have much else to report on this month so I'll just say that our next business meeting and dinner will be at the Peppermill Restaurant on Wednesday, September 18th at 6:00 pm. Come early for some social time before the meeting starts. And don't forget to bring those bottles and cans for our fund drive. If anything changes between now and then I'll let you know by mail, email or phone call.

Have a safe Labor Day.

Nydia Temple No. 4

by Past Queen Kathy Walliker

The members of Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile, are very excited to be celebrating our 100th anniversary this year (see pages 10-11). We have many activities planned, but the big one of the year is when the Supreme Queen visits. This year, we will be returning "home" to the previous home of Nydia Temple for 60 years, now the Portland Art Museum. The members only ceremonial begins at 1:30 in the Sunken Ballroom, and the banquet, which includes family and guests, will be upstairs in the Grand Ballroom starting at 6:00 pm, social time starting at 5:00.

All friends of Nydia Temple are welcome to join us for the banquet. Tickets cost $55, and are available now through the deadline of September 17th. Included in the evening's events will be a historical gala – at look back at 100 years of history, a history table displaying valuable items from Nydia's history, and of course a champagne toast. It's a once in a lifetime event for all of us fortunate enough to be here to celebrate.

Any questions – please contact Past Queen Paulette Schlee at ptschlee@comcast.net or me Kathywalliker@gmail.com, or visit www.nydiatemple.com.

Oriental Band

by Noble Kevan Snyder

The Dallas parade (Saturday, July 20th) was a great event with Noble Mel Hervey and his Lady Kathy, hosting a social time and lunch before and after the parade. Noble Mel won 'Best Band Director' at the OB competition at the Shrine Imperial Session in Nashville earlier in July and he is an excellent host as well.

The Oriental Band enjoyed good fellowship and food on Tuesday, July 30th, at Famous Dave's in Tualatin.

The Black Camel visited the OB, when Noble Phil Strothers wife Robbie passed away July 31, 2019 and again when our Noble Brother Jim Lang passed. Please keep them (and Lady Katherine) in your thoughts and prayers.

The Baker City, Shrine East/West Football Game and Parade, was an amazing event and well attended. Thursday August 1st, we dined at The El Erradero restaurant and they had room for our entire group. We had a great time. Friday was golf in the morning, followed by lunch at The Main Event Bar. As usual we filled the back of the dining area and everyone had a good time. That evening we enjoyed the band "Steak Dinner" behind the hotel, and took the float to Dairy Queen for Lady Janelle's birthday, hosted by Noble Ralph Jubb. Special thanks to the Motor Escort for keeping us all out of trouble.

The next day, The OB got to trade tunes with the Concert Band, at the hotel pool area. The music was heartfelt, and hung in the air like the sweet scent of flowers.

A local Shrine Noble made a point of telling me how much he liked Noble Jim Lang. He told me of the times spent with the OB, and that he had taken Jim to Lake Anthony on fishing trips. It reminded me of how our adventures together can help us stay with each other, in our hearts and minds.

About a mile out of Baker City I got a shock. I saw the OB bus and float on the side of the road with Noble Art Hermanson on the phone. It took me a while to process what I saw, but I pulled over. Noble Brian Williams (special thanks to him) and his Lady Jennifer were on the scene; with Noble Art and Lady Lynn. The bus needed radiator repair, so everyone got on the phone and called for help. As always, Shriners were there to help each other.

Please come to the next 'Live at the Shrine Dance Night,' to help pay for the radiator repair.

Shriners Run for a Child by Terry Griffith, Assistant Rabban

By definition a partnership is "an arrangement where parties, known as partners, agree to cooperate to advance their mutual needs. Partners may be individuals, businesses, interest based organizations, governments or combinations." Probably the most important and common partnership for each of us is our marriage. We actually do form a partnership with our spouses for the advancement of each of us.

Within the context of the Shrine, it is imperative that each of us and every Club and Unit form partnerships. You can do it alone, but it is a great deal easier and financially advantageous for us to cultivate our businesses and form these long-lasting bonds.

In Central Oregon the Masonic Lodge and the Central Oregon Shrine Club has worked together to do exactly that, form partnerships. We, like all groups, must look outside the box to enhance and expand our fraternities. In one case this partnership overlaps from the Shrine into the Masonic Lodge. Albertson's/Safeway of Bend is

Earl David Swenson, 96, was born in Boone, Iowa on March 9th, 1923. Memories from his childhood are wrapped in hunger. He was only 6 when the stock market crashed in 1929. He remembers his father lost the farm and moved the family into a house that rented for $8 per month. As a young man, he followed his peers enlisting right after Pearl Harbor and served in the Marines as a platoon scout and demolition specialist in the 1st Marine Division, which landed on Guadalcanal in 1942 undersupplied and underprepared, frequently living on captured Japanese rice. In 1943 Earl was injured and honorably discharged. He took employment at the shipyard and there met Ruth McCraw. They were married later that year and enjoyed 61 years together, until Ruth's passing in 2005.

Earl retired in 1985 after working 41 years as a network design engineer for Bell Systems. He then started serving the hungry through SnowCap Community Charities, where Ruth was on the board of directors.

Because of his childhood and memories of food strife, he has a heart to help those who currently struggle. Earl and Ruth also served with Meals on Wheels by delivering meals to seniors throughout the Portland area for 30 years. He drove until he was 92 and then "retired" again. He continues to serve by being active in his church and says he lives by H.I.M. - "Honor, Integrity and Mercy".

Earl has family ties that thread through much of western history; his great-great-grandfather was Jacques Cartier, who founded Canada – Earl is also a descendant of William Brewster, a passenger on the Mayflower, who served as an English Official and Senior Elder of the Plymouth Colony.

Earl is a devoted Mason of 73 years and a dedicated Shriner of 11 years; being a very active Greeter and was that unit's Chaplain in 2015. He has received several service awards, including the distinguished Hiram award in 2000.

Earl is definitely a man who has a passion for people and a huge zest for life!

our greatest partnership to date. Through the assistance of one store manager, Mike Connor, he has helped out the Central Oregon Shrine Club's Shriners Run For A Child immensely. Each year he donates hundreds of dollars towards the free BBQ that each Run participant receives at the Run. Additionally, he feels so strongly about our philanthropy that he personally attends the event, bringing ice cream, fruit and other items and mans his own booth. We are so lucky to have Mr. Connor on our team.

Now you are thinking, so what does he get in this partnership? This is where the true meaning of the partnership takes over. The Bend Masonic Blue Lodge at Christmas time gives over 75 needy families Christmas food boxes so they will have a complete Christmas Dinner. The food is purchased from Mike Connor's Albertsons in Bend, at a very equitable price. Additionally, the food purchased for the Al Kader Family Picnic also comes from his store. It is not only about money, it is about working together with someone in the community to let them see of fraternities.

Our second important partnership is with the Oregon Youth Challenge Program, based just outside Bend. It is for children between 16-18 who are "at risk youth" and this is their only opportunity to finish high school. This alternative high school teaches discipline, personal growth, self-improvement and self-improvement in a highly structured, non-traditional environment. This is like a boot camp high school.

For the past several years they have been volunteering to help with the set-up, tear-down and course guards for the Central Oregon Shriners Run For A Child. They have literally changed the atmosphere of the event.

These young men, and women, are extremely structured and disciplined in the performance of their assigned duties. When they march in, not only do they turn heads but each of us involved with the Run are very happy to see the additional help. In this partnership, the Cadets get the most valuable reward – food. Their program keeps them on a very strict diet, so to be able to get out of the normal routine, be outside and have a BBQ hamburger is quite the deal for them. Additionally, I travel out to their base and give an hour-long presentation twice a year on Masonry and being a Shriner, complete with Fez. They ask a multitude of questions, beginning with whether or not we are a cult! Once it is established that we are not, then the questions usually get a little more realistic.

Partnerships are important not only for what we can get but just as importantly that it gets us out within our communities, which is a way of "getting the Fez out." To survive we must start thinking outside the box and trying something different. What can you do that is new and innovative?

Rise and Shrine

Portland Shriners Hospital Fraternal Monthly Newsletter

by Dereesa Reid, Executive Director

One of my favorite memories of childhood was summer camp. My earliest memory of camp was Brownie Girl Scout camp. It was a warm, Texas morning in Coleman Park where we were learning about early frontier life. The local newspaper sent a news reporter to write an article and take our picture. Today, I still have that faded newspaper clipping of my childhood friends and our summer camp fun. Perhaps, this is one of the many reasons that I get so excited when we host summer camps at the Portland Shriners Hospital. Our outstanding therapy department hosts the Constraint Induced Movement Therapy Camp and the speech language pathologists (SLP) Augmentative & Alternative Communication Camp. Our Recreational Therapy program offers kids opportunities from horseback riding, kayaking, rock climbing, and more. In July, we hosted a new camp through our Clinical Research Department called the Neuromuscular Camp, which lasted three weeks. This is an aspect of a Shriners Research Grant secured by Susan Sienko, clinical researcher at the Portland Shriners Hospital. During this camp, the children set their own goals to gain the ability to perform certain tasks. Using games and play, they improved physical coordination, balance, and range of motion. Think about it...playing games at camp for three weeks and gaining better physical abilities! If only my gym class was that fun! Just like the old days from my summer camp, our camps are filled with summer fun, friends and new experiences. I can't wait to see some of the photos from their experience with us!

P.S. Summer camps aren't over yet! Transitions Camp 2019 is scheduled for the week of August 5th. Susan Labhard will be hosting another fun-filled and information packed week for teens transitioning to adulthood!

Wallowa County Shrine Club by Noble Bill Williams

We hosted Wallowa County Shrine players, their parents and an Eastside coach at Vali's Restaurant on Monday, August 12, 2019.

Noble Greg Johnson (Vice President), Noble Gerald Crawford (Treasurer), Coach Duncan Christman, player Tyler Homan (Joseph), Noble Sam Wade, player Coy Aschenbrenner (Enterprise), player Gus Ramsden (Wallowa), Noble Jim Eldred (President), Noble Melvin Brink, Noble Bill Williams (Secretary) and Noble Don Stein. One player, Trey Wandschneider (Joseph) was unable to attend.

Coach Christman and the players all said that the visit to the Shrine Hospital and the game were great experiences they would never forget. Tyler will be attending Washington State University, Coy is an electrician apprentice with Joseph Electric, Gus will be playing football at George Fox University and Trey will be trying out for the Eastern Oregon University football team.

Our club is proud to have sponsored such outstanding young men, and we wish them the best in all of their future endeavors.

Cyclowns by Noble Patrick Sheehan

On August 1st, Al Kader lost one of its most beloved members, Jim Lang.

His amazing stories will live on among the Cyclowns and other clubs in which he was an absolute legend. We are all devastated by his passing and grateful we all had the chance to know him.

Here are a couple of photos taken at Fight Night 2018, which was held in Jimmy's honor. We love you buddy.
